

DAWN

Capital Appearance—The Beatles performed for a youthful audience in Washington on the night of February 12.

Opening for Juniors—These college juniors joined the Peace Corps' new summer project for six to eight weeks of training similar to that for regular Peace Corps volunteers. They later did surveying work near Taos, N.M. After graduation they will be sent to Latin America.

Ranger on Target—This is a photograph of the lunar surface taken by the Ranger 7 spacecraft prior to its impact on the moon July 31st. The area shown is about one and two-thirds miles on a side. The smallest craters are about 30 feet in diameter and 10 feet deep. Some of the large craters are about 300 feet in diameter.

Family Grieves—Gust Carlson, father of Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary slain by rebel troops in the Congo, dabbed at his eyes during a news conference in Los Angeles on November 24. He is flanked by his daughter and another son.

New Teen-Age Queen—Smiling Carolyn Mignini, 17, of Baltimore was crowned the new Miss Teen-age America of 1965 in Dallas on November 13.

World's Fair at Night—The New York World's Fair attracted as many visitors at night as it did during the day following its April opening. The nighttime lights set off the beautiful pavilions constructed by many countries.

Democratic Victor—President Lyndon Johnson won the 1964 election by the greatest plurality and per cent of the total vote in U. S. history. Johnson became President at the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Barry's Battle for Votes—Sen. Barry Goldwater was surrounded by fans at Knoxville, Tenn., airport September 16 as he campaigned for the presidency on the Republican ticket. The conservative senator swept to a first-ballot nomination at the convention in San Francisco.

National Events in Review—1964

Redbirds are the Winners—Roger Craig leaped on a group of teammates surrounding the pitcher Bob Gibson moments after the last out in the seventh World Series game won by the Redbirds over the Yankees, 7-5, in St. Louis.

I'm the Greatest—Cassius Clay whooped it up with his handlers after he won the world heavyweight title in Miami Beach in February. He was credited with a technical knockout of Sonny Liston when Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Alaskan Quake—A whole line of cars rested about 20 feet below street level on a main thoroughfare in Anchorage the day following the disastrous earthquake on March 27.

Dedication

Mrs. Irene Keister

We, the class of 1965, are proud to dedicate our yearbook to a very worthy teacher.

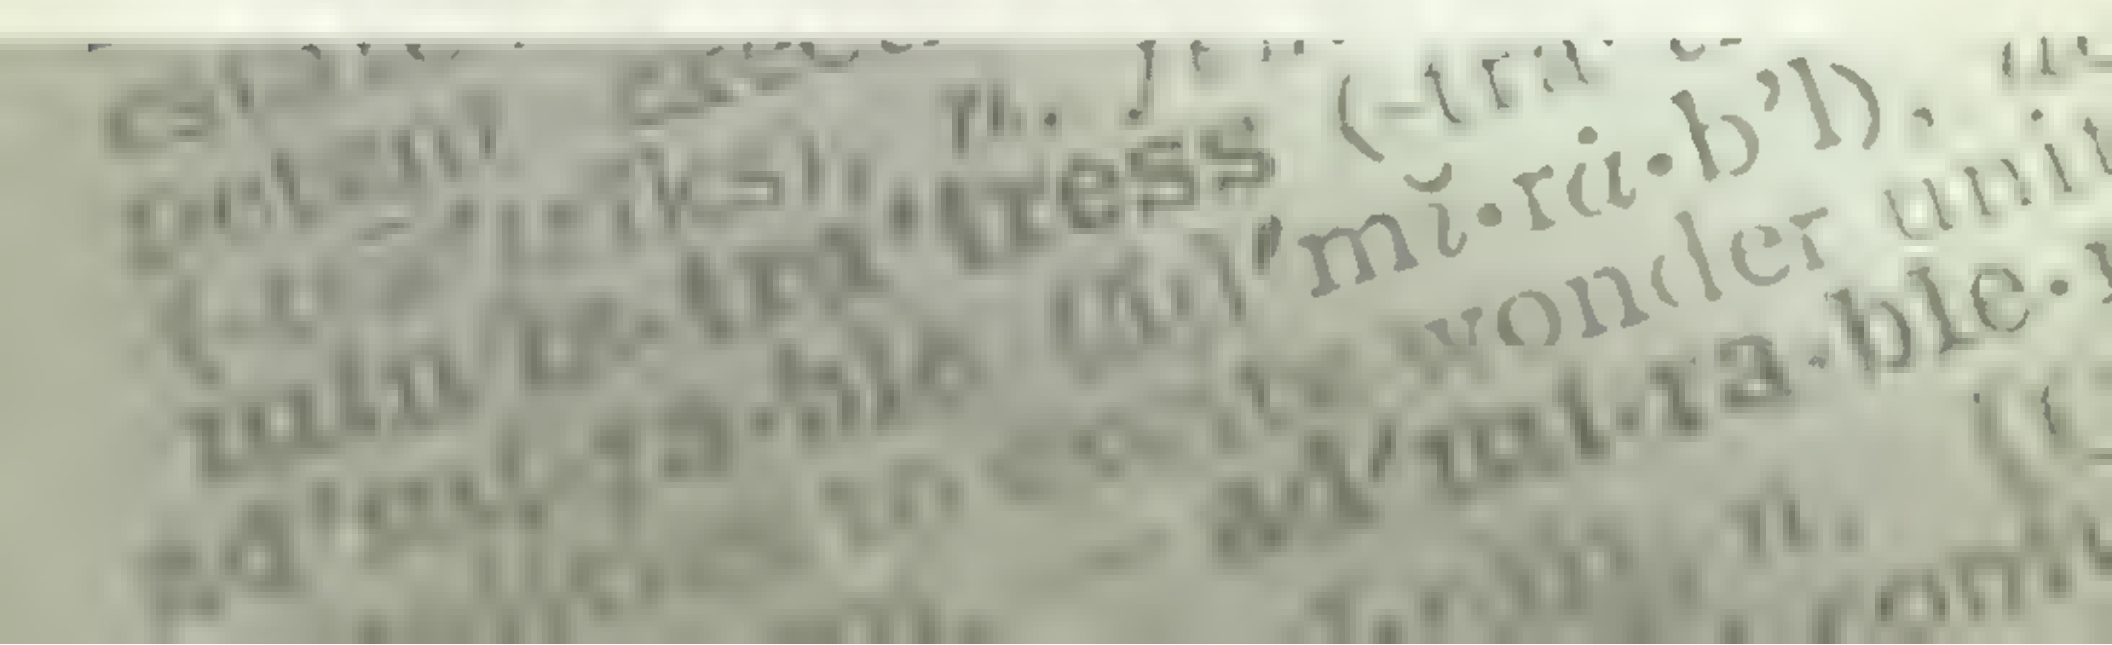

Once a student at Brockway High, she has returned to teach at her alma mater.

She is always willing to give advice and guidance to those who need it. Her friendly smile and genuine interest in her students have won her the admiration of all who have known her.

It is with deepest gratitude and respect that we, the Seniors of 1965, dedicate this, the twentieth edition of the "Dawn," to Mrs. Irene Keister.

BAHS Administration

Mr. Blair Rupert
Supervising Principal

Mr. Herbert Steele
School Principal

Miss Caroline Longwell
Assistant Principal

The success and unity of our school structure depends largely upon the harmony which exists between its two branches, the administration and the student body. While these two groups differ greatly in size and structure, they have a similar purpose: to provide tomorrow's world with the leadership and skill necessary for progress. It is the goal of the administration to provide the best possible education which will prepare each and every student to assume a place of leadership in his chosen profession. Similarly, it is the aim and the duty of each student to apply himself to the task of scholarship with all his resources and energy. As the student body is the very life and purpose of a school, it is fitting that the pictures of our leaders and administrators be followed by the pictures of those they guide and inspire — the students.

Brockway Musicians Bring Honor to the School

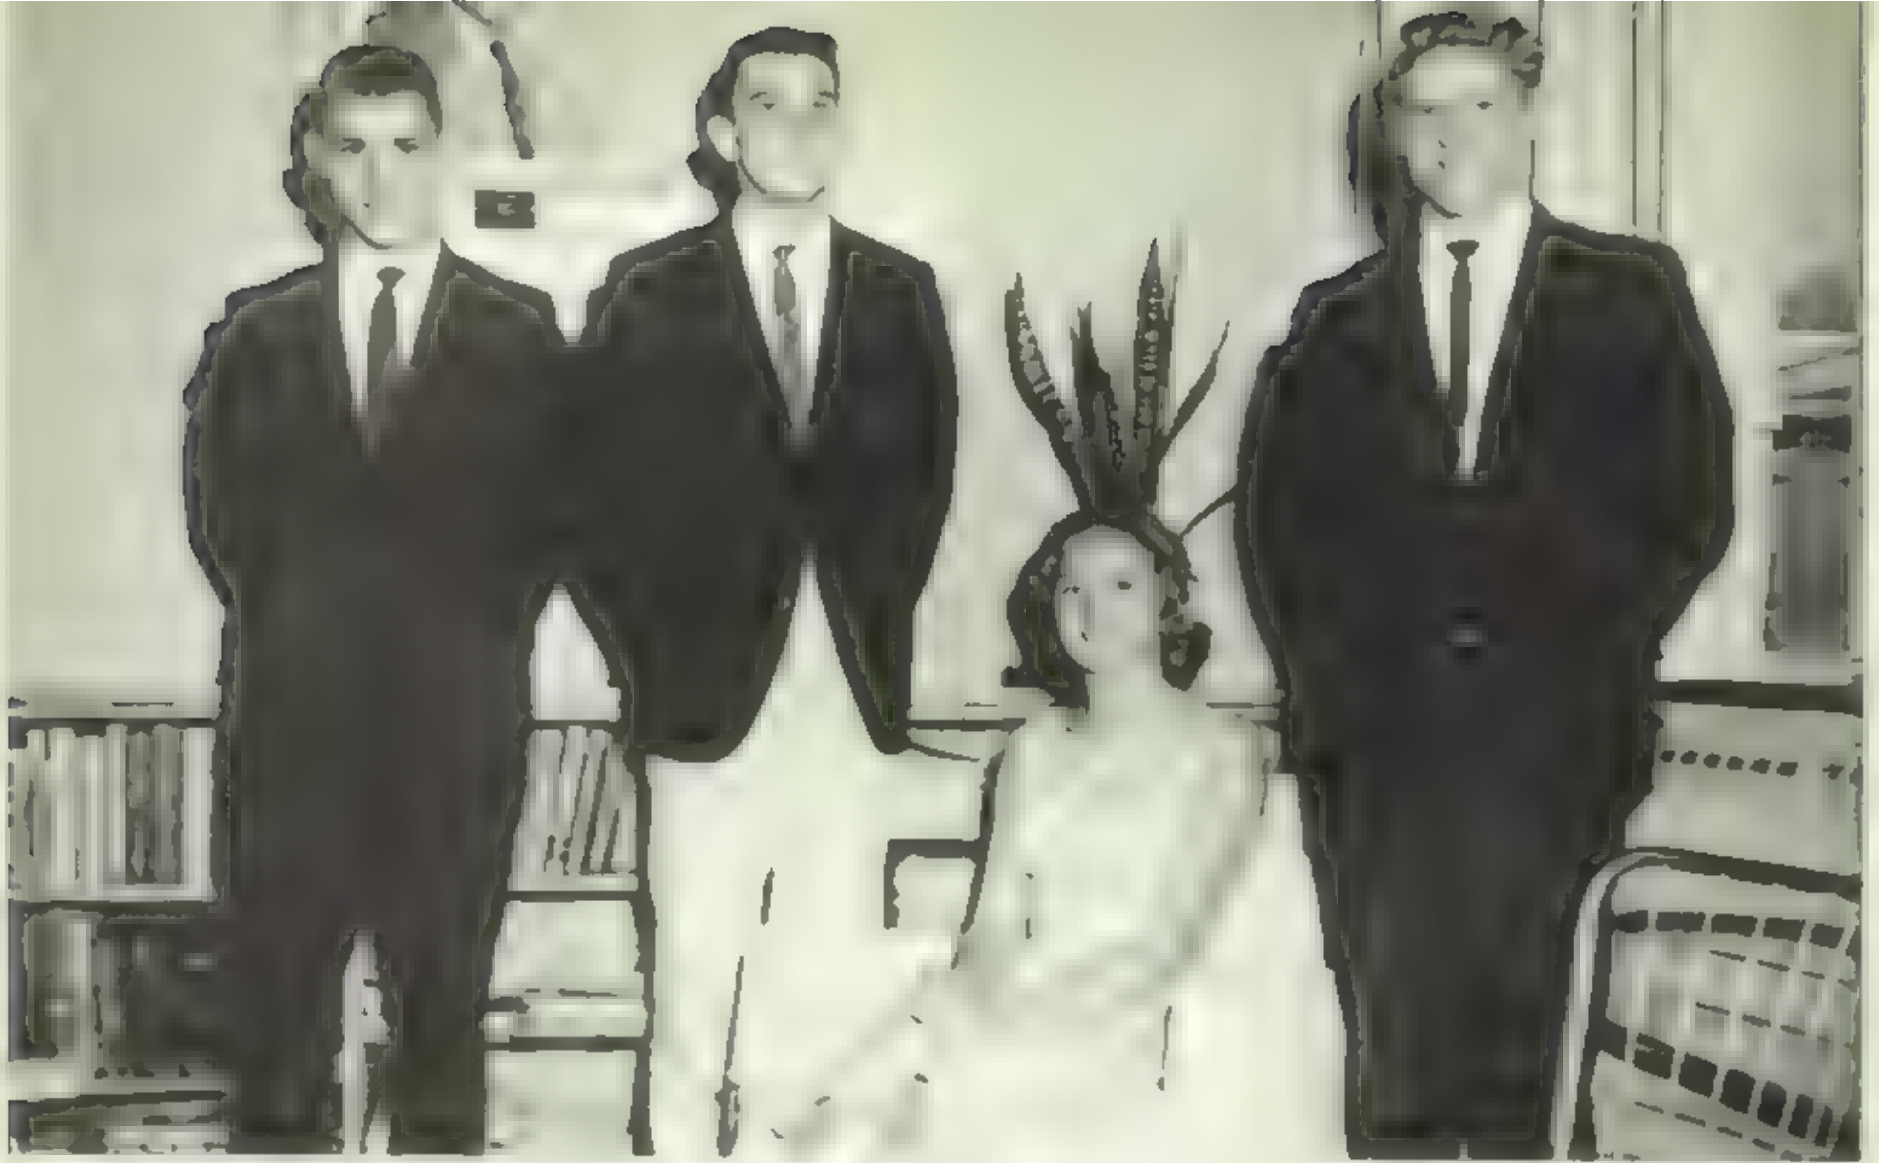

Vicki Harry

Last year the Brockway Band was honored by having two of its members attend the Music Educators National Conference held in Philadelphia. The members of this band were made up of the upper one third of the musicians who attended Regional Band in one of the five regions of Pennsylvania. Vickie Harry and Tom Burkett, who ranked very high at Regional Band, attended this important festival, a feat which requires much training and skill.

As the first light of dawn resolves itself into the brightness of day, so did the eighth-graders resolve their best efforts into their educational journey, faced with the ever-growing challenge of academic excellence; these young students have incorporated vital enthusiasm and dedication into everything they do. These qualities are sure to make their scholastic lives, as well as their futures, successful and rewarding.

In the dawn of their high school years, the seventh-graders have eagerly participated in the school's activities. Their enthusiasm and lively interest have been an asset to our school. They were faced with new responsibilities, but soon adapted themselves to their new surroundings and quickly settled down to their studies. They have put their best foot forward in preparing for the years ahead, and we are confident that they will be able to meet the challenges of the future.

Scholastic Awards

Each year, after the termination of the school term, the outstanding students are invited to attend a scholastic banquet. Participation in this event is acquired by attaining honor roll status three times during the preceding year. These students are representative of a great deal of work and achievement and are among the most ambitious and industrious students in the school.

Seniors who have attended the Scholastic Banquet

Homecoming — 1964

Homecoming Queen and Attendants Attendant: Linda Benson Queen: Nancy Smith Attendant: Miranda Estine

The Student Council's efforts in organizing this year's Homecoming resulted in one of the most successful and beautiful pageants ever. The festivities began with a bonfire and pep rally held at the football field on the eve of the Homecoming. Following a parade led by the Band on Saturday afternoon, Queen Nancy Smith and attendants Linda Benson and Marsha Fustine were ushered onto the field during the half-time of the Brockway-Reynoldsville game to the strains of POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE. They were presented trophy by the co-captains of the football team. The celebration was climaxed by the Homecoming Dance, at which Nancy Smith is officially crowned Queen of the Homecoming.

Golf, a relatively new sport in our school, is comprised of voluntary players who have expressed interest in this field of athletics. A team is made up of five members who oppose golfers of equal handicap and ability from other district schools.

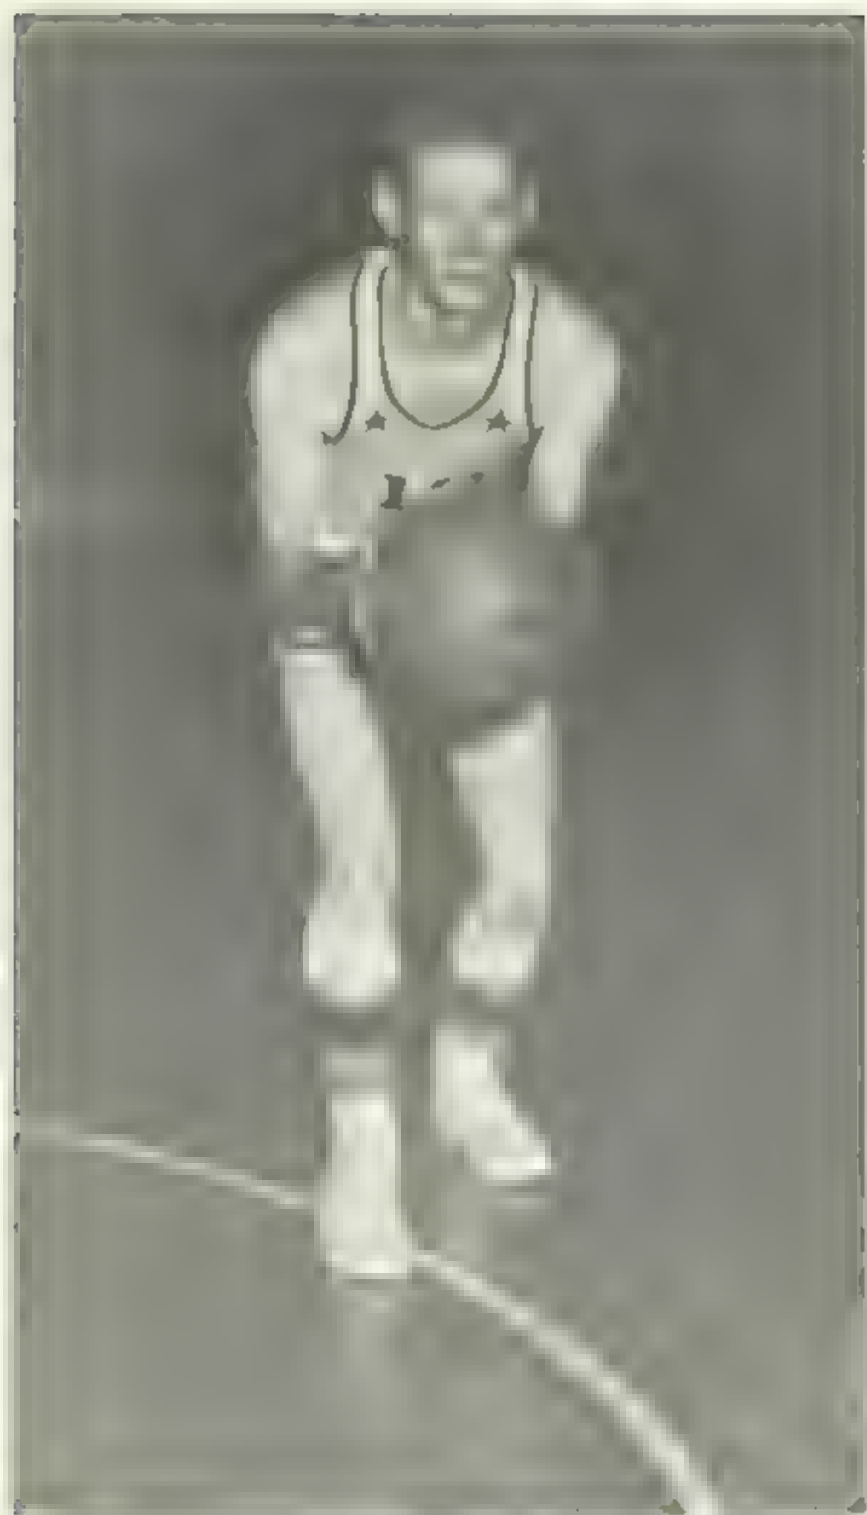

The team won two of its six matches last year when it participated in the District IX schedule. During May, three members of the team -- Emory Keith, Ernie Coder, and Dennis Keister participated in the District IX Tournament, an annual event held at various courses in the district.

Beginning in April, the golfers, with the supervision of Mr. Coder, will start many arduous weeks of practice in order to make this an even more successful year for Brockway.

The cheerleaders did an extremely commendable job helping to restore spirit to our school. During the summer the squad met twice a week to perfect their cheers. In the fall they introduced several new cheers, which were greeted enthusiastically by the student body. A pep rally, in which the cheerleaders and the boys' players exchanged places, was held before a league game during football season. This was only one of the many excellent pep rallies held during the course of the year. The squad worked hard to prepare routines for the pep rallies and to lead the crowd in cheering the boys on to victory.

The Dance Band, formerly a club, is now in the curriculum and is scheduled one period a week. Under the new terminology, a group of this nature is now called a stage band. This group is an offshoot of the style made immortal by such all-time greats as Les Brown, Duke Ellington, and the Dorsey Brothers. The objective of the modern stage band is no longer to provide fast dance music. It reflects the style of the swing era in its big band sound which, unlike common dance music, is primarily for listening. The function of this organization in the school curriculum is to expose the musicians to the various fronts of jazz on instruments other than just the guitar. This provides an opportunity for wind players to double on other instruments and to increase their virtuosity in a practical and profitable way. It teaches the students to be able to express themselves through their music as well as to enable them to understand the principles of music in a more practical and efficient way. This type of music also increases the individual technique of each musician and helps him to better coordinate himself to skill in performing with a small group. An organization such as the dance band also teaches a sense of leadership in music—a trait which may prove very profitable in the future. To be an effective musician in an organization of this kind, the student must understand the fundamentals of music theory because he must be able to apply them in an effective manner in ad lib sections.

Our dance band is organized on a basis of providing its members with this kind of experience and training. The students perform at many functions—notably dances and banquets, at which they have been very successful and well-received.

Concert Band

A very great asset to the instrumental department of our school is the Concert Band. Each fall after football season is over the Marching Band makes the transition into its concert season. During this period the emphasis is shifted from the brisk snappy marches and show music to careful renditions of all types of music, from jazz to classical selections. This year the band had the great honor to be invited to perform at the New York World's Fair, and devoted the proceeds of several concerts and drives to achieving this end. A magazine campaign held early in the school term provided a large part of the funds, which were later supplemented by other activities sponsored by the assiduous band members and their parents.

The Future Farmers of America, commonly known as the F.F.A., is an organization formed for boys enrolled in Vocational Agriculture. The F.F.A. not only teaches modern farming to the boys, but is of great benefit to the local community. They take part in activities and contests which build up one's character and the desire to win. The climax of their school year is a banquet in which the members receive awards for their achievements.

The main function of the Future Teachers of America Club is to create among the student body an interest in teaching. In addition to observing classes and teaching for one day in the elementary schools, the members also toured the campus of a local college. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Grant, this vital organization provides the benefit of experience to those students contemplating a career in teaching.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America was organized to teach young girls the responsibilities of managing a home. Under the leadership of Mrs. Burkett, they are taught the various fundamentals of home economics. Girls from the ninth through twelfth grades who are interested in homemaking may become members of this club.

Pep Club

Pres., S. [Name], J. Kane, Advisor, Mrs. Siple; Vice Pres., P. Britton, [Name]

The Pep Club, organized for only two years, has become a very active organization in the school. For each athletic event, the members of the club made posters and placed them in various places throughout the school; victory tags were also given to the student body to be pinned on their shirts or blouses. Much enthusiasm was aroused by the members, who sat together at all games and cheered vigorously. Under the supervision of their peppy advisor, Mrs. Siple, the Pep Club added to and made the spirit of the school stronger.

Art Club

The Art Club, which is under the supervision of Miss Straitwell, does an admirable job of beautifying our school and displaying the creative skill of the students. It provides decorations for stage settings, show cases, and various banquets in addition to posters for athletic and other student functions. The Club, open to all students in grades 8 through 12, holds a formal initiation for new members each year. After which it settles down to work on its many projects.

Library Club

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Haines, the Library Club works hard to help students in the library find research material, the answer to a puzzling question, or just something to read for pleasure. The members of this club give up their study halls to serve as librarians and to do the other necessary work that keeps our library operating at its usual high peak of efficiency.

ALMA MATER

In a peaceful, quiet valley

Under skies of blue,

Stands our noble Alma Mater,

Glorious to view.

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,

Praise her to the sky,

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater --

Dear old Brockway High.

Chou Listens—Red Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai held an earpiece as he listened to an address by the Soviet Union's new party leader, Leonid Brezhnev, during a meeting of world Communists in Moscow on November 6. Alexei Kosygin, Soviet premier, is at right.

They Died in '64—These world figures died during the year. From left are Prime Minister Nehru of India, General Douglas MacArthur of the United States and former President Herbert Hoover.

Stretcher Cases—Wounded white hostages and Belgian paratroopers were carried from rescue plane at Leopoldville after it arrived from Stanleyville November 24. The paratroopers descended on the rebel-held Congo city just as a massacre of hostages began, and their quick work saved the lives of hundreds.

New President—Foreign Minister Giuseppe Saragat (right) was formally notified in Rome on the night of December 28 that he had been elected president of Italy.

World Events in Review—1964

Alliance Talks—British Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker, left, talked with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard in Bonn on November 15 during efforts to find a compromise on a new nuclear force for the troubled Atlantic Alliance.

Pope Visits India—The 38th International Eucharistic Congress opened in Bombay, India, on November 28. In December, Pope Paul VI made the longest papal journey in history to attend sessions of the congress.
